

In our classrooms, we must provide students with the space and opportunity to dream and plan for the future with our assistance and encouragement. In addition helping them realize their dreams, we must also help them actualize their dreams. Having students create their dream resume is a great way to support students in planning for their future and obtain the information we need to ensure they are College, Career, and Military Ready when they leave our schools.

In Your Classroom:

1. Make copies of this handout distribute to students.
2. Allow students to research different career options and interest and design a resume based on their skills and how it relates to their career interest.
3. Support students in identifying their personal skills and how those can be used in various industries.
4. Allow students to present resumes to class or use resumes as a guide when have 1:1 with students.

Virtual/Content Connection: Students can design resumes in Google Docs, Adobe Spark, or Canva. Students can also build a Google Site to curate their research of the various professions explored. This resume template can also be used to explore book characters, historical figures, professions related to a content area, or even members of their family or community!

WHAT'S UP? GET TO KNOW ME A LITTLE MORE!

Educator with almost a decade under my belt. I have a passion for teaching, coaching, and mentoring other educators. My overall goal is to twist the way we do teaching and learning in urban schools through hands-on, relevant, and standard based lessons. I firmly believe that if we change education in urban schools we are one step closer to changing lives in urban communities.
